

GENERAL ORDERS, }

No. 1. }

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, January 6, 1862.

I..Transportation by Express Agency being liable to abuse, and very expensive, is prohibited by the Secretary of War, on public account, except in cases of great emergency.

II..The power given in "General Orders," Nos. 58 and 61, of 1861, to Volunteer Officers to muster volunteers into service, is hereby revoked. They may, however, receive volunteer recruits into service on enlistments.

BY COMMAND OF MAJOR GENERAL McCLELLAN:

L. THOMAS,

Adjutant General.

OFFICIAL:

Assistant Adjutant General.